

11th March 2015 Morning Assembly
by Andrew Kan and Vincent Tsang (5B)

V+A: Good morning everybody.

A: I am Andrew Kan from 5B.

V: I am Vincent Tsang from 5B.

A: Hey Vincent! Chinese New Year has just passed. Have you got lots of lucky money?

V: Sure. I have six thousand dollars.

A: Cool! So how are you going to spend your lucky money?

V: I am thinking of buying a new iPhone.

A: A new iPhone? You just bought your phone 3 months ago. It is still very new. Don't waste your money! Have you thought of saving your money, or doing something meaningful with your lucky money?

V: No... I have no idea. How about you? What will you do with your lucky money?

A: I plan to go traveling after my HKDSE Exam so I will save the money.

V: Great! Good idea! I can save my money to do something wonderful after the exam!

A: Also, you can donate some of your lucky money to some people in need. It is more meaningful than buying a new mobile phone.

V: You are right. I should spend my money wisely.

V+A: Hope all of you will spend your money wisely and meaningfully.
Thank you!
