

English Morning Reading

Article:

Hunt launched for ATM Crook in bank cash bid
[C1]

Date: 17 November 2016 (Thursday)

Classes: 6B + 6D

Reading Time

You now have 5 minutes to read the article.

Vocabulary

1. suspicious (adj.) – making you feel that sth is wrong, illegal or dishonest
2. withdraw (v.) – to take money out of a bank account
3. alert (sb) (v.) – to make sb aware of sth
4. concealed (adj.) – hidden
5. intent (n.) – what you intend or plan to do
6. statement (n.) – declaration / a formal account of facts
7. vigilant (adj.) – watchful / alert
8. counterfeit (adj.) – fake
9. loiter (v.) – hang around
10. vicinity (n.) – the area around a place

Useful expressions

- come to light
e.g. The rape case came to light when the girl reported what her father had done to her to the school counselor.
→ to become known to people
- in connection with (sth)
e.g. A man has been arrested in connection with the murder of the teenager.
→ for reasons connected with sth

Question for IP

Do you think Hong Kong citizens are careful enough when they use their ATM cards or credit cards?

Preparation: 3 minutes

Presentation: 1.5 minutes

Time for presentation

- 6B27
- 6D18