

English Morning Reading

Article:

Ocean Park does not plan to get new giant panda in near future to replace Jia Jia or send body to landfill

[C3]

Date: 18 October 2016 (Tuesday)

Classes: 6B + 6D

Reading Time

You now have 5 minutes to read the article.

Vocabulary

1. captivity (n.) – the state of being kept in a confined space
2. necropsy / autopsy (n.) – an official examination of the dead body
3. put sth to sleep (idiom) – to kill
4. honorary (adj.) – given as an honour, treated as a member of a group
5. deteriorating (adj.) – becoming worse
6. bury (v.) – to place a dead body in a grave
7. remembrance (n.) – the act of remembering sb who is dead
8. clingy (adj.) – needing another person so much
9. anaesthetise (v.) – to make sb unable to feel pain

Useful expression

- anticipate (doing sth)
e.g. Ocean Park is not anticipating asking for more pandas after Jia Jia's death.
→ to think with pleasure that sth is going to happen

Question for IP

What do you think can be Jia Jia's contribution to Hong Kong?

Preparation: 3 minutes

Presentation: 1.5 minutes

Time for presentation

- 6B12
- 6D26