

English Morning Reading

Article: No excuse for Air China's prejudice

Date: 15th September, 2016 (Friday) [A12]

Classes: 6A + 6D

Reading Time

You now have 5 minutes to read the article.

Vocabulary

1. prejudice (n) – an unreasonable opinion, especially when formed without enough thought or knowledge
2. broaden (v) – become wider
3. exposure (n) – experiencing something because of being in a particular situation or place
4. mores (n) – the traditional ways of behaving that are typical of a society
5. offence (n) – illegal act
6. diversity (n) – a range of different things or people
7. staple (adj) – basic, main
8. shield (v) – protect something
9. insult (n) – offensive remark or action
10. nationalism (n) - a great or too great love of your own country

Useful expressions

- ..... is supposed to .....
- There is no denying (that) .....

e.g. As students, we are supposed to work hard and do our best, but not waste time and avoid challenges.

e.g. There is no denying that, recently, Hong Kong has been experiencing controversies over many social and political issues.

Question for IP

- (i) Describe one instance of discrimination (gender, racial, age, physical abilities, etc.) experienced by you yourself or your family members or friends.
- (ii) What can be done to prevent the same from happening again?

Preparation: 3 minutes

Presentation: 1.5 minutes

Time for presentation

- 6A (14)
- 6D (18)