

English Morning Reading

Article:
Calls for Hong Kong government to bring in laws
protecting online shoppers

<http://www.scmp.com/news/hong-kong/economy/article/2043642/calls-hong-kong-government-bring-laws-protecting-online>

Date: 8 November 2016 (Tuesday)

Classes: 6A + 6B

Reading Time

You now have 5 minutes to read the article.

Vocabulary

1. lag (v.) – develop more slowly than others
2. consumer watchdog (n phr.)
3. regulate (v.) – to control sth by means of rules
4. dispute (n.) – an argument
5. account for (phr v.) – explain
6. insufficient (adj.) – not enough
7. lessen (v.) – to make sth become smaller/weaker
8. cooling-off period (n.) – a period of time after a person who has bought sth, during which he/she can change the mind
9. hindering (adj.) – making sth more difficult
10. dire (adj.) – very serious

Question for IP

Do you or your friends shop online? Is it feasible to introduce a cooling-off period in Hong Kong?

Preparation: 3 minutes

Presentation: 1.5 minutes

Time for presentation

- 6A12
- 6B19